Hong Kong Hockey Association
1st Hong Kong International 6-a-side Mini Hockey Tournament 2013

【6 Jan 2014, Hong Kong】 The Hong Kong Hockey Association (HKHA) organized the '1st Hong Kong International 6-a-side Mini Hockey Tournament 2013', on Sunday 29 December 2013 at Hong Kong Football Club and Happy Valley Sports Ground. The event was supported by the Leisure and Cultural Services Department. The tournament was divided into 4 categories: under 8 years old, under 10 years old, under 12 years old and under 15 years old, which gathered over 400 mini hockey players and officials.

This mini hockey tournament was the finale of a series of events in 2013 to celebrate the 80th anniversary of the HKHA. Overseas teams from Shanghai, Guangzhou and Taiwan joined 24 local teams in 4 categories and enjoyed a fun filled tournament.

It was calculated that all players consumed a total of 39,541 units of calories on the day; FoodSport, a partner organization of the tournament converted the calories into food units, which was donated to Hong Kong Caritas Mok Cheung Sui Kun Community Centre. Let every drop of sweats be meaningful and help those under privileged in Hong Kong.

After fierce competition, the tournament came to a close with Yunfu, Conghua, Khalsa and KCC emerged victorious in the various categories.

Final standings of tournament:
